

Maria do Rosário Loures (Portugal 1959) is a trilingual writer (writing in Portuguese, German and English). Since 1987 in Germany. She was the delegate of the Greens Party at the International Women's Congress in Nuremberg in 1991.

She was President of Associação Portuguesa de Nürnberg e. V. in 1992 for a term of office.

Her first appearance in the world of poetry was in 1996 at the art magazine "sign 7" by Gillitzer & Müller, Nuremberg; following the same year the Anthology „Wortlaut 1“, „Wortlaut 2“, 1997 „Wortlaut 3“, 1998 „Wortlaut 4“ (Kulturladen e.V. in Nuremberg), 2000 Anthology „Pegnitzrauschen“, 2002 „Pegnitzrauschen zweite Welle“ (Fahner Verlag, Lauf), 2010 “Do Atlântico Azul ao Verde das Oliveiras/Atlantikblau und Olivengrün”, bilingual book Portuguese and German, her own translation, (edim editores, Porto), 2010 “Um sumário da minha vida no século passado” (edim editores, Porto), 2010-2021 many anthologies in Portugal.

She represented in 2013 the portuguese emigrants in Germany at “ENCONTRO MUNDIAL - MULHERES DA DIÁSPORA” / international migrant's congress.

2020 the translation of 4 poems were translated (Daniel Dragomirescuand) "Prin Noaoptea Infinita" (editura pim) and published in Rumania.

She also published articles to the Portuguese newspaper in Germany ,Portugal Post.

2016 published and coordinated the first Anthology "Poetas na Diápora", Oxalá Editora, 2018 published again for the same anthology. 2020 published and coordinated again the Anthology "Poetas na Diápora" (Germany). She also publishes her poems on Facebook under “Poetical Diary”.

She was appointed on 25th January 2021 as International Ambassador of Peace and Human Rights by the World Literary Forum for Peace and Human Rights – WLPH.

She is now coordinating the 1st Anthology of Poetry Hera The Light of Women" edited by the association Hera to promote and support the continuous effort to the development for legal, political, and conceptual basis for gender equality; Hera focus on the active creation of concrete, tangible and very substantial opportunities enabling women to feel complete and live their lives with fulfilment.